III. Development of the Story 47
 Rising Action — Lower Classes
 Climax — Seniors
 Falling Action — Aftermath
 IV. Authors of the Story 75

This is the story of Valparaiso High School . . . in the year 1952 . . . its growth and development . . . its enthusiasm . . . its joys and pleasures . . . its memories . . . its regrets and disappointments . . . its contributions and achievements . . . its school spirit . . . and its individuality . . . all of which will some day be missed so much.

First is the framework of the story, our teachers. They are the basis from which we learn and build our lives year by year. Ready to help us whenever we need them, they are behind us in all that we do.

Second, are the elements of the story . . . our happy times, memories, activities of the year, clubs, and sports.

The crispy fall evening of Homecoming, the snowflakes and mistletoe of the Christmas formal, Marrin' Sam at "Sadie Hawkins," the girls' invitations to the "Turn-About-Trot" and "Gold Diggers' Dance," and the swishy formals with summer moonlight at the prom, will be remembered by all.

The action of our story is the activities . . . clubs, plays, concerts, and parties.

The conflict of the story presents our sports . . . football . . . basketball . . . track . . . G.A.A. . . ., all of which were not only backed by our over-whelming school spirit, but played with real teamwork in which each man put forth his very best in each sport.

Last is the development of the story. We see the classes in action. The students grow year by year from the beginning as bewildered freshmen until they reach the end of their journey as . . . seniors! This, however, is not the end of our story. It is only the beginning, as the seniors step out into the waiting world which holds in store for them, college, jobs, and marriage.

G. Warren Phillips

Superintendent

A great deal of recognition is due Mr. G. Warren Phillips for the smooth running school system of Valparaiso. For the past eight years, Mr. Phillips has done an exceptionally fine job in attending to the numerous responsibilities of his high position.

In addition to his regular duties, Mr. Phillips is now faced with the problems of the ever expanding school population of Valparaiso. We are confident that Mr. Phillips will carry out this big responsibility with the same foresight and superior ability that he has exercised in the past.

Mr. Phillips received his A.B. from DePauw University and his M.S. from Indiana University.

King Telle

Principal

No school could be more fortunate than in Valparaiso High School when it comes to principals. Beloved and respected by all, Mr. Telle has displayed a rare combination of humor and discipline in his associations with the student body. In spite of the big load that rests on his shoulders, he has a warm and friendly smile for everyone.

In the six years that Mr. Telle has been at this school, he has had a keen interest in school activities, both scholastic and social. He has been accepted by the students as a true friend, always ready to help and co-operate whenever he is needed, which is quite often.

Mr. Telle received his A.B. from Hanover College and his M.S. from Indiana University.

Grace Rickard

Marlene Wolfe

Secretaries

Recently in Mr. Telle's office many students were surprised to find their classmate, Marlene Wolfe, behind the desk formerly occupied by Marilyn Lembke. The student body is justly proud of the efficient and polite manner in which Marlene has so ably adjusted herself to this important position.

Grace Rickard, a pleasant and familiar face in Valparaiso High School, has filled her position as secretary to Mr. Phillips for many years, always cheerful and courteous as she goes about her many duties.

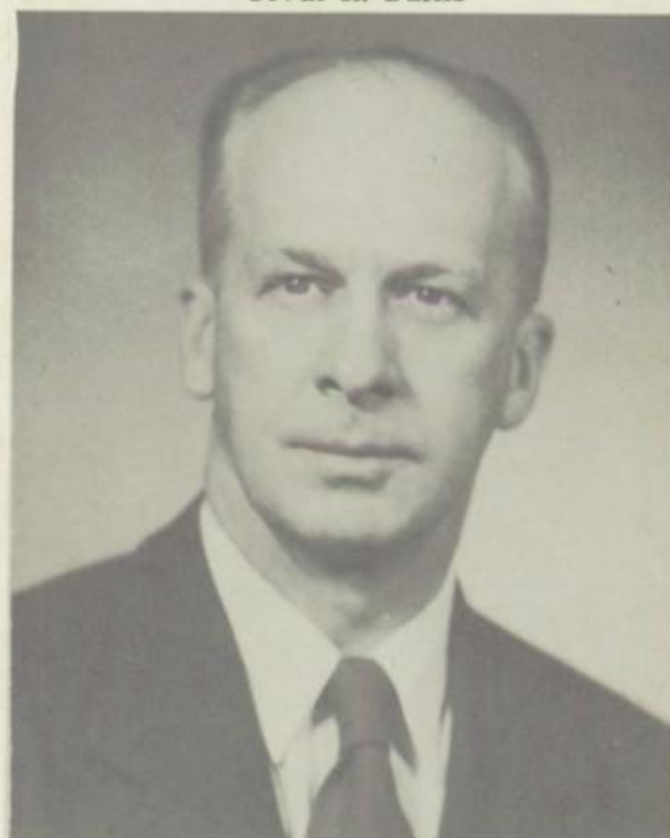

Board of Education

Behind the scenes in this city's fine school system, three prominent Valparaiso businessmen are working diligently to assure the best educational opportunities to all students, both at the present time and in the future. These men, Orval R. Burns, president; Lynnet M. Casbon, secretary; and Walter H. Hathaway, treasurer; have served on the Board of Education for several years.

The job of these men carries a great deal of responsibility and requires them to make important decisions. Their efficient handling of the many problems facing an ever growing school city, proves that this job has been placed on very capable shoulders.

The Faculty

More than a chapter in our "Story," more fittingly the co-authors who have made this story so successful are the faculty members of our school. With seemingly endless patience and always a helping hand, they have shown many a misguided student a new turn on the road to maturity, not becoming discouraged when their task seemed futile. It is they who can proudly take the credit they have earned when, each year, another senior class graduates, having gained knowledge and confidence to take places in the adult world.

ACTION OF THE STORY

"To be of help and service at all times" is the slogan of the Y-Teen Organization at Valpo. The girls participating in the activities of the club have proved to be of service both around the school and in public life. Some of these services include such activities as helping pass out the food and doing the dishes at noon for the hot lunch program, sending a basket of food to a needy family at Thanksgiving or Christmas, and selling T B seals for two weeks each December.

The whole program is not made up of services however. At each meeting, which is held on the second and fourth Monday of each month at three o'clock, some form of entertainment is usually provided. This entertainment consists of such things of interest as a home decorator or a florist showing how to make corsages.

The activity that is enjoyed most by the members is the custom of going to a church service as a group. This gives the girls a chance to witness the religions of new churches as well as appear in a group.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the representative group of the student body. At the beginning of each year, a representative or representatives, as is the case in the senior homeroom, are elected. These representatives, along with the presidents of the junior and senior classes and the student council president, meet every Friday night after school to discuss the problems and ideas presented to them by the students.

This group maintains a very important position in the affairs of the school; and each member, who serves during the year as long as his grades are high enough, feels it an honor to be a representative of the Student Council.

HI - Y

The Hi-Y is a boy's organization which can be compared to the Y-Teens for girls. It is a Christian organization with a devotional part in every meeting and the custom of having a minister for a guest speaker once a semester. This club meets regularly once a month, but it also has special called meetings.

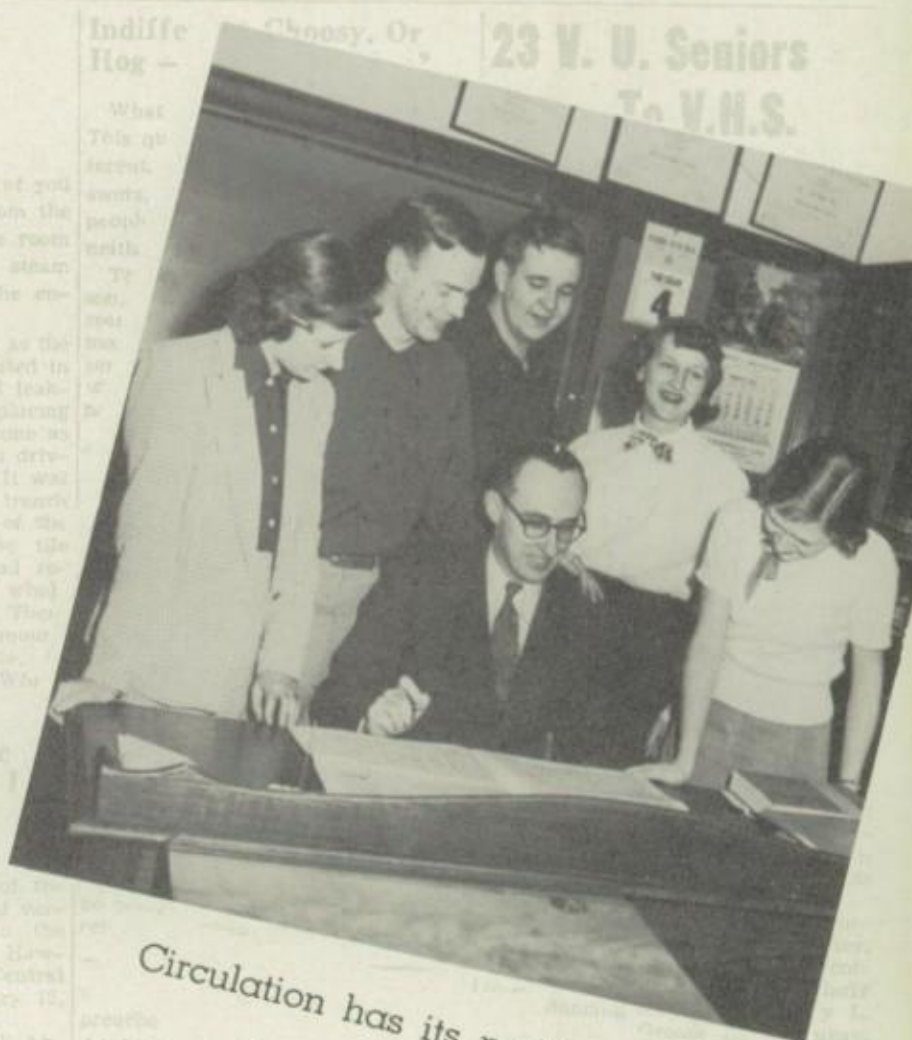

A boy who wishes to become a member of the Hi-Y so expresses his desire; and when he has taken the Hi-Y pledge, he becomes a member officially. The officers for the coming year are always elected at the end of the preceding year.

The club for the most part is very active. These activities include the formal installation of officers and induction of new members, a father and son banquet, the sponsoring of a dance which was called the "Stag Drag" this year, attending a church as a group, and having a swimming party. During the summer, the club also sends two of its members to the national conference in Cleveland.

Officers: Robert Roy, treasurer; Joseph Bigelow, David Miller, president; David Platts, Donald Brown, vice-president; Dale Shatz, secretary.

FUTURE HOME-MAKERS OF AMERICA

In order that some girls may further their knowledge and interest in home economics, the Future Homemakers of America Club was formed three years ago. This year the club is going stronger than ever.

The F. H. A. is a national organization, and this year our club sent delegates to the convention at Buck Creek, Indiana. As a result, Marilyn Bundy returned with the honor of having been elected district treasurer.

During the year, the club has met every other Wednesday after school in the small room off the foods laboratory. This room is really the office of Mrs. Fields, the new Home Ec teacher and sponsor of this organization.

This year the club has participated in such activities as having two dinners, sponsoring a semi-formal dance which was called the "Gold Diggers' Ball", preparing a box to send to Korea, and holding a Mother's Day Tea.

SCIENCE CLUB

Any students taking chemistry or physics who have an added interest in the subjects may become members of the Science Club. The club is headed this year by a new science instructor, Mr. Doeden.

The purpose of this organization is to further the knowledge of these students as far as science is concerned. Many of the new scientific inventions, theories, and devices are discussed at the meetings by various professors from the Valparaiso University or the Valparaiso Technical Institute. Field trips are also taken to such establishments as the Indiana Steel Company and the Miller Laboratory. The biggest field trip of all is a day spent at the Museum of Science and Industry on the Monday of our spring vacation following Easter. This has proved to be an interesting as well as an educational organization.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club, which has been organized to add extra interest to the course, meets once every week during the class period. This club is for the advanced students in Spanish.

In order that the students may become more acquainted with our South American neighbors and their habits and customs, reports on the various ways of life of these people are given along with reports on the interesting history which is connected with them.

As a project, the club made lantern slides to illustrate a story which the members had written in Spanish. Then, at their annual dance, the "Carnival", this story was read and the slides were shown as an added feature. This proved to make the dance a big success.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Along with taking care of their regular studies in high school, some students have a desire to enter into dramatics. This desire can be satisfied by joining the Dramatics Club.

The activities of this club include learning about the theater and make-up, as well as presenting plays to the student body. Each member is given a role in one or more plays, and after it has been learned and rehearsed enough, which includes rehearsals in the evening and in the morning before school, the play is put on before the student body. These plays give the members of the club the experience of speaking and performing before a group as well as that of learning the tricks of the theater.

VIKING GRIDDETS WIN 5 — LOSE 4

Head coach Fred Brock, direct from the Purdue University backfield, turned in a splendid coaching assignment by bringing the small, but game, Vikings through a winning season. Coach Brock took over Coach Paul Miller's duties after he was recalled to military service at the end of the 1950 season.

The Vikings again ran their plays from variations of the T-formation. The 1951 griddeers were small in comparison to other Green-and-White teams, but experience, speed, and determination to win made up for what was lacking in size.

The gridgers opened the season in fine fashion. They spotted the Bulldogs of Crown Point two touchdowns and an extra point before coming to life in the second half with fourteen points to win the game. In the second encounter, Valpo gave the Griffith Panthers twenty points before Bob Johnson broke through for four touchdowns and a 24-20 win.

Ironically, the Brockmen played their best ball in losing to LaPorte and Plymouth. The big LaPorte team was no match for the small Vikings, who gave it everything they had; while smooth running, precision. blocking, and a few lucky pass catches spelled defeat at Plymouth.

FIFTEEN SENIORS GRADUATE

Gone from the Viking lineup, when sheepskins are passed out in June, will be fifteen seniors who contributed much to the 1951 grid team. Among them will be Bob Johnson, one of the finest footballers ever to attend Valpo High. Bob consistently broke through the opponents line for long gains.

A score of underclassmen, many of them letter winners, will return next season; so Valparaiso fans may count on another fine team.

JV's GAIN EXPERIENCE

The Freshman-Sophomore eleven, tutored by Stan White, played a seven game schedule, and came through with three well-earned victories. The Junior-varsity defeated Michigan City, Crown Point, and Lowell; but dropped decisions to the Griffith, LaPorte, and East Chicago Roosevelt reserve teams, and to the Portage varsity.

The young Vikings would have won more games, but some freshmen and sophomores were gaining vital experience as members of the varsity. Those that did see action showed promise of developing into valuable players within the next year or two.

VIKING CAGERS WIN TWENTY GAMES

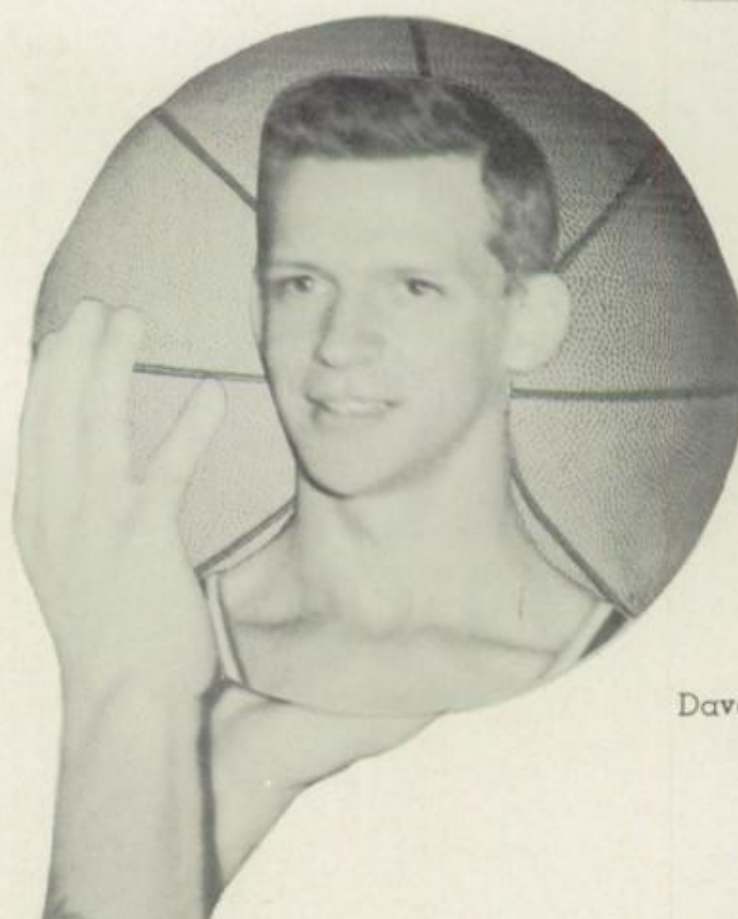

Experience, teamwork, and balance of scoring power brought Valparaiso into the elite of Indiana high school basketball during the 1951-1952 season. Coach Bob Dille's Vikings, who were listed as "well regarded" in the weekly United Press polls five times, finished the season losing only five games.

Gene Stipp

The Green-and-White cagers got off to a good start with three victories before losing to high-ranking East Chicago Washington in a thrilling, well-played game. The Vikings breezed through six more opponents before Gary Froebel caught the Dillemen off form and handed them their second defeat. The loss of Froebel was the beginning of a slump which found Valpo losing poorly-played games to Whiting and Hammond Clark, and barely winning overtime games from Hammond High and Tolleston after blowing comfortable leads. The Vikes recovered after the Clark encounter to win the last five games on the schedule.

Valpo won the Fourth Annual Holiday Tourney by racing past Portage and North Judson by large margins. This was the first year that the Vikes had been able to cop the trophy.

Valparaiso won 20 and lost 5, including tourney play, and established a respectable 7-4 record in the West N. I. H. S. C. which placed them in a tie for fourth place. Senior Les Pollock, a four time letterwinner, was voted a guard berth on the All-Conference Second Team. Gene Stipp, another four-year man, Gene West, and Dave Klemz all received honorable mention.

Valpo's best game was the 66-51 conquest of Lew Wallace in the last game of the season. Les Pollock turned in a magnificent defensive job on the Hornet star Joe Capua, who had beaten Valpo single-handedly the previous year.

BOW IN REGIONAL FINALS

In a new set-up, which gave Valparaiso fans their own Sectional Tournament, the Dillemen triumphed in the sectionals; but were beaten in the finals of the Hammond Regional. The Vikes eliminated little Jackson Township by a big margin in the first round of the sectional. The Trojans of Chesterton almost upset the favored Vikings by giving them a good fight before bowing 50-48 in the semi-final game; but the Green-and-White cagers had an easier time with LaCroses in the finals.

In the semi-final game at Hammond, Valpo outlasted the Blue Raiders of Tolleston in a thrilling battle which saw the lead change hands many times in the last half of the game. The Vikes started off by building up a commanding lead before intermission, but Tolleston came back strong in the second half to make the game much closer.

In the finals Valpo was stopped one short of the "sweet sixteen" by a much improved band of Wildcats from Hammond High.

VIKING THINLIES UNDEFEATED

For the second consecutive year the Valparaiso High School Track Squad, under the capable direction of Coach Ken Pifer, was undefeated in dual and triangular competition. The Vikings came out on top in seven regularly scheduled meets, and were proclaimed winners of the Annual LaPorte Relays held at the Maple City track on May 15. Bad weather forced the postponement of some meets and resulted in the cancellation of a few others.

COMPLETE SUCCESSFUL SEASON

The Vikings started off the season on the right foot by copping 4th place at the Conference Indoor meet held at the Chicago University fieldhouse on March 31. During the course of the season the Pifer-men placed fifth in the pre-conference meet and sixth in the Conference finals held at East Chicago. Valpo qualified thirteen boys for the Regional meet by virtue of their efforts in the Sectional. Bob Bailey won blue ribbons in both the 440 yard run and the half mile at the Sectional. In the Regional the Vikes placed seventh out of twenty-two teams. Bob Bailey, Bob Eaglesbach, and Med Walsh scored points in the Regionals and thus represented Valpo in the State Finals at Indianapolis. Bailey copped a 3rd in the 440 yard run, Eigelsbach placed 4th in the mile, and Walsh tied for fourth place in the pole vault. In the State Finals Valpo's only point was picked up by Senior Bob Bailey who placed fifth in the quarter-mile.

Four records were broken during the 1951 season. Bob Bailey set a new half-mile time, 2:04; Jim McGarvey clipped three-tenths of a second off the old low hurdle mark of 24:3 which had stood for eight years; Bob Eaglesbach ran the mile in 4:41.1; and Ronnie Lines went over the bar at 11 feet 11½ inches to set a new pole vault mark.

G.A.A. SENIORS AND JUNIORS

The Girls' Athletic Association has been of long standing importance to the girls at V. H. S. It was organized under the guidance of Miss Helen Schudel in 1930 and has thrived ever since.

The girls participate in many extra-curricular activities which help to promote a better understanding of healthful sportsmanship.

The freshman girls who entered G. A. A. this year were confronted with the annual Freshman Initiation, which proved to be fun for everyone.

Speedball started the years' activities rolling early in the fall. This was followed by volleyball. Basketball, bowling, and tumbling concluded the activities for a well-rounded winter. In the spring, track, softball, tennis, and archery provided many hours of fun for the G. A. A. members. Noonday League also played an important part in this years' activities.

All during the school year the G. A. A. conducted business meetings and planned for the three big events that they sponsor;

SENIOR CLASS OF 1952

June, 1952 . . . the time has come when we must leave Valparaiso High School, which we can now proudly hail as our "Alma Mater."

With us we will carry throughout our lifetime our many happy thoughts and memories.

September, 1948 . . . how small we looked . . . a little bewildered, but happy to be in high school at last.

As sophomores we remember English class with Silas Marner and Julius Caesar, along with the triangles of geometry.

"Apple Blossom Time" was chosen as our theme for the Junior Prom. Shiny class rings were the climax of our junior year.

Our final year at V. H. S. is one that we will never forget. In the early fall were . . . football . . . cheers . . . homecoming. In the winter . . . basketball . . . Christmas formal . . . Sadie Hawkins dance. Highlighting all sports during our four years was the cutting down of the nets after we won the sectionals this year, and our joyous victory in the first game of the regionals held in Hammond, the first in 18 years.

In the spring was track . . . prom . . . yearbook . . . senior day . . . award day . . . baccalaureate . . . and June 5, 1952 . . . graduation night . . . red roses . . . "Pomp and Circumstances" . . . tears and excitement. Is it possible that our high school days have ended so quickly?

At the end of four years.

1952 SENIORS

Last Will and Testament

Jackie Allison wills Joe to anyone who wants him; if not, she'll keep him! Lee Roy Anderson wills his position as president of the choir to any junior who has the misfortune of being elected as such. Laurel Ashbaugh wills her first chair position in band to Leonore Nickel. Shirley Athens wills her straight A's to anyone who studies hard. JoAnn Bartz wills her life and fortune to a Morgan lad, who's not half-bad. Maxine Bartz wills her glasses to Dorothy Dufallo. Joe Bigelow wills his pretty teeth to "Babe" Doelling. Donald Black wills his roller skates to Wilbur Toms. Sue Black wills her job in the kitchen to Shirley Roberts. Earl Blackney wills his drum sticks (the broken ones) to Mr. Rogers. Tom Book wills his loud socks to Wade Blastick. Jim Bozik wills his golf clubs to Ronnie Zimmerman.

Charles Brown wills his labor to Chicago Wheel. Don Brown wills the president's gavel of the senior class to some lazy junior. Dick Bundy wills his ability to be involved in auto accidents to Paul Nuppnau. Mary Cargo wills her Civics grades to Donna Doran. Joan Casey wills her Washington Township boy-friends to members of the Junior Class. Jim Cavanaugh wills his machine shop "duds" to Mr. Pifer. Rita Dalke wills her knowledge of Sociology to Mr. Henkel. Betty Daniel wills her quiet personality to Judy Brown. Robert Doud wills his car to Steve Danielson. Herb Douglas wills his ability to keep awake in classes to any alert junior. Charles Dowd wills his excellent free throw percentage in basketball to Mike Cavanaugh. David Dowd wills his beard to Paul Garrison. Ronnie Eckert wills his tenor voice to Wayne Swift.

Dorothy Ehrhardt wills her homecoming crown to a junior, preferably a girl. Robert Eigelsbach wills his track records to Valpo High for many years to come. Dale Ellis wills his electric guitar to "Daisy" Brown. Sharon Flick wills her ticket selling duties to any girl who has the patience. Mary Lou Gibbs wills her speaking ability to Mary Dennis. John Gilbert wills his nickname of "Farmer" to Gene Rhoda. Marjorie Gill wills her squeak stick (clarinet) to Wally Weller. Robert Gingerich wills his winning personality to Ed Treseler. Donald Greaves wills his hot rod to Tom Morris. Wilma Green wills her alto voice to Marlene Crowe.

Helen Hall wills her red hair to Frieda O'Barr. Dale Homan wills his tight levis to Donny Keyes. Ruth Horner wills her battle scars from traffic accidents to Marge Dalke. John Hurley wills his conduct grades to Dave Swarner. Carol Ingman wills her Missouri personality to Gwen Stewart. Jeffrey Inman wills his ability to draw birdhouses to Reinie Tauck. Martha Irons wills her seat in Sociology to the first person who bids, because that class is usually very crowded. Margaret Johnson wills her smile to Sharon White. Marjorie Johnson wills her faculty for being late to class to Nancy Brownell. Mary Johnson wills her shape to Joan Schumacher.

Robert Johnson wills his sports ability to the up and coming freshmen. Mary Jean Keehn wills her short haircut to Norina Wallace. Carla Kelso wills her cheerleading outfit to her successor. Robert Kerr wills all the bad words in his vocabulary to Ray Kuhrt. Dave Klemz wills all his aches and pains during the basketball season to the opposing players of next year's team. Jan Knarr wills her student announcing duties to someone who has a pleasing voice, good articulation, and speaks English. Bud Kraft wills his famous hook shot to Wade Blastic. Joe Krueger wills his rapid rate of speaking to Billie Jane Johnson. Nanette Kuehl wills all her soldier admirers to any one who has a lonely heart. Ruth Lansing wills all her clothes to her sister, Gale. Florian Latek wills his basketball ability to Don Burrus. Jim Looft, wills his experience on the bench this football season to Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Fred M. Vinson. Wilma Ludington wills her curly hair to Donna Lamb. Cliff Magnor wills his airplane to Dave Johnston.

Audrey Martens wills her tumbling ability to Virginia Peters. Helen Mathias wills her job at Sievers to Janet Longshore. Evelyn Maudlin wills her position as Art Editor on the Valenian to Phyllis Coulter. Bob McCarron wills all his girl friends to some other unsuspecting, innocent soul. Charlotte Meyer wills her ability to sing on the rests in choir to Judy Prentiss. Dave Miller wills his curly hair to Bruce Douglas. Bob Miller wills his bones to the Biology Lab for further study. Asaneth Moneypenny wills her music contest rating to Pete Paul. Marjorie Murphy wills her Valenian editorship to any junior (preferably one who can read and write).

Joanne Muster wills her ability to reach the high notes to next year's soprano section in choir. Josephine Muster wills her typing ability to Mr. William. Jack Ohlfest wills his piano playing ability to Larry Hofferth. Charlotte Orange wills her peroxide streaks to all the blondes in V. H. S. Falling Action of the Story

The falling action of our story of V. H. S. is only the beginning of our lives as we step out into the waiting world into college and jobs, followed by marriage.

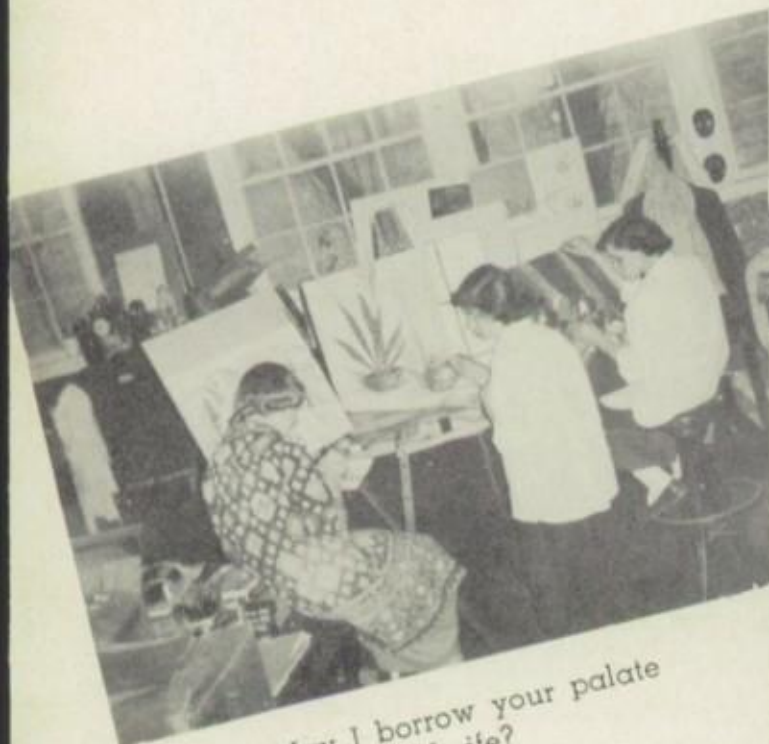

College requires time for study.

Planning for the future.

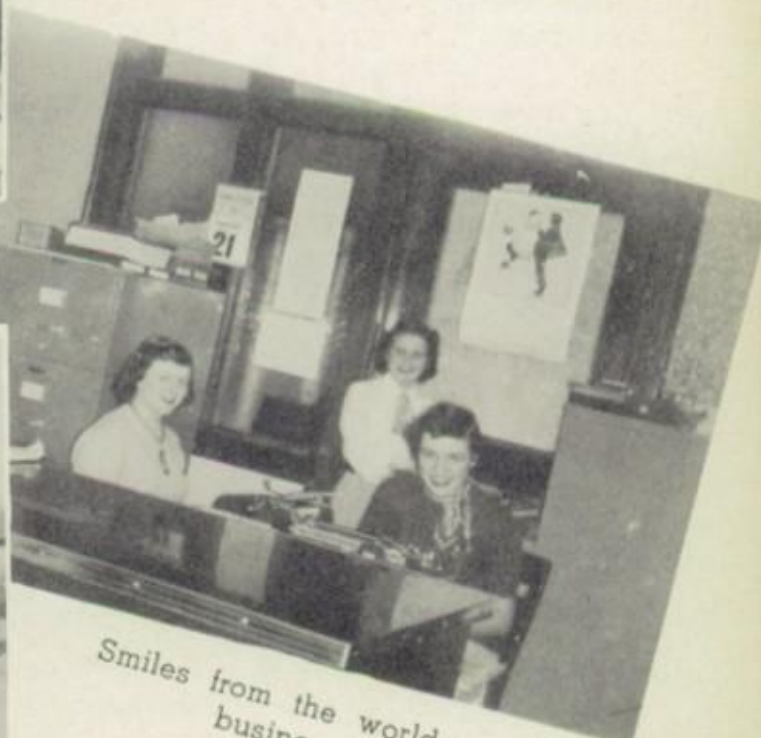

Are you sure this machine will do the trick?

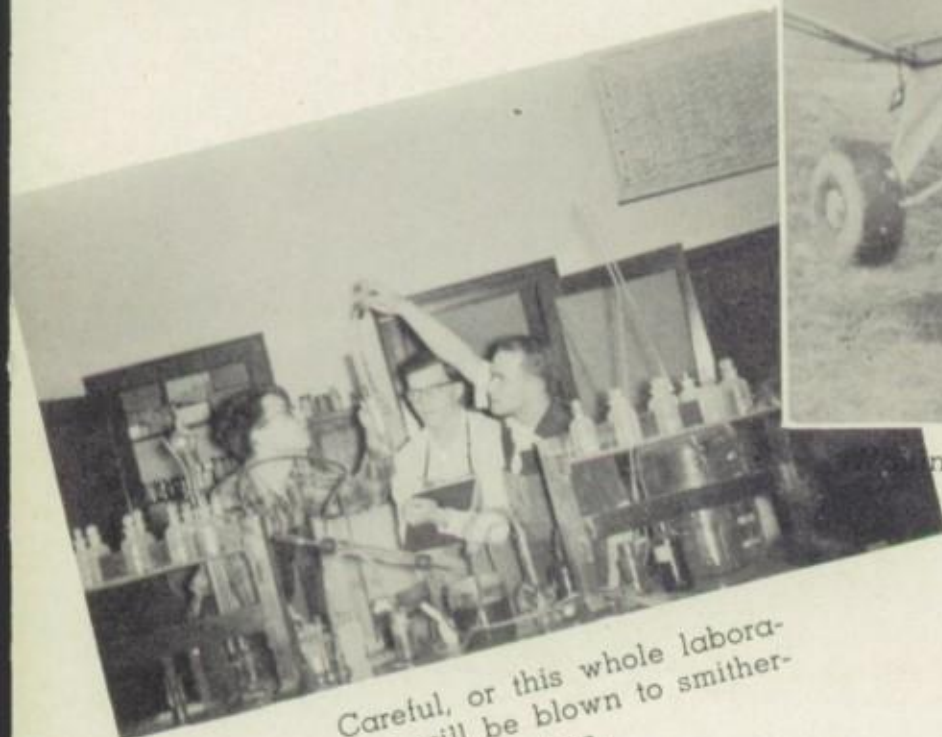

May I borrow your palate knife?

Waiting for the take-off.

Smiles from the world of business.

Careful, or this whole laboratory will be blown to smithereens.

They'll be bringing in the next victim any minute.

CLASS PROPHECY

The engines started, everyone fastened their belts and opened their mouths to keep their ears from popping, and the space ship piloted by Charles Oyler and Clifford Magnor, with stewardesses Mary Johnson and Charlotte Meyer, took off from Earth for an interplanetary tour in the year 2052.

The first stop was Marsville, which was an emergency because Joan Casey had a severe toothache which was administered to by a Marsville dentist, Richard Bundy and his assistant, Maxine Bartz. David Dowd, Florian Latek, Robert Zell, Bob Gingerich, and Robert Doud went next door from the dentist's office to the barber shop. They were surprised to find Lee Roy Anderson as its owner and Bob Kerr, Tom Book, and Joe Krueger as his helpers. With the toothache and haircuts attended to, we decided to give the city a once-over. Discovering that we were hungry, we stopped at a drive-inn owned by Wayne Rice and Beverly Wilson for planetburgers and atomic malts. We were waited on by Bettimae Wilson, Audrey Martens, and Mary Lou Wells.

Noticing a billboard advertising a wrestling match, we decided to attend and found the wrestlers to be "Gypsy Jo" Muster and Mary "Mighty Atlas" Swenson.

Once again we boarded the space ship, this time for Luna City on the Moon. On the way, we nearly collided with tiny space car driven by Charlie Trenkle. We noticed his passengers were Dick Reed, Jim Wareham, Don Greaves, Wally Pullins, and Dick Schau. Rita Dalke, Marilyn Shurr, Sharon Flick, JoAnn Bartz, Pat Shannon, and Marge Gill became ill with space fever, so we stopped at Saturntown where "Doc" Joe Bigelow treated them. Also living in Saturntown were Dale "Lefty Frizzel" Shatz, a ranch-owner, his wife, formerly Nancy Shufflebotham, and his cowhands, foreman George Phillips, Ed Schroeder, Don Brown, Bob Miller, Don Black, and Earl Blackney. We decided that there was ample time to attend the circus, and saw its performers were Charles Brown, ringmaster; "Dot" Ehrhardt, Margaret Johnson, Mary Cargo and Ada Sztankay, Aerialists; Dale Ellis, Jim Looft, Ed Visnow, Jim Bozik, and Don Wirth, clowns; trick riders Ruthann Stewart; contortionist, Jack Ohlfest; and tightrope walker, Marlene Yelton.

At last we arrived at Luna City. We found the citizens, the "Lunatics," to be very friendly people, especially since we knew many of them. The first night we attended the opera, "Romiette and Julio," with Joanne Muster the prima donna, and Ronnie Eckert, her leading man. We also saw the stage show, "Mac and Beth" with its stars, David Platts and Ruth Lansing.

We toured the Luna Gazette of which Margie Murphy was the editor, Gene Smith, the printer, and Dave Miller and Bob McCarron, copyboys. We walked past the Law firm of Ryan, Douglas, and Inman. We learned that Nanette Kuehl had won the mayoralty of the city over Charles Kraft, and were also privileged to witness the great Spaceball championship won by Lester Pollock, Dave Klemz, Gene Stipp, Gene West and Charles Dowd, under Med "Ears" Walsh's coaching.

On our way to a bathing beauty contest, traffic was held up by a bevy of females, Sue Black, Mary Lou Gibbs, Wilma Green, Ruth Horner, Mary Jean Keehn, and Helen Mathias, who were chasing the dashing movie star, Michael Woelfel. He ducked into the stage door and collapsed in the arms of Carolyn Scholl, an actress. The contest judges, John Gilbert, Don Wichman, Dale Homan, and Jim Cavanaugh had difficulty in selecting a winner from Jan Knarr, Jean Wright, Jackie Allison, Betty Daniel, Carol Ingman, Laurel Ashbaugh, Wilma Ludington, and many others.

While strolling through beautiful Luna Park, we stopped to chat with Mrs. Evie (Maudlin) Stoner and Charlotte (Orange) Ransom who were giving their children an airing. They informed us that the scientists Jim Polo and Marie Uban had concocted "Uraniyummes," a BANG-up breakfast treat; Shirley Athens and Carla Kelso were operating a hospital for the broken-hearted; Marlene Wolfe had worked her way up from office secretary to the position of principal of LHS; Marilyn Swift owned a meat-packing agency; Bob Johnson was manufacturing baby powder; Janet Parry finally got her wish, which was to own grocery chain stores on every planet; Bob Eigelsbach had become a universally known track champion, and Asaneth Moneypenny, was directing the Jupiter Orchestra.

Wondering about the rest of our former classmates, we learned that Barbara Wilson had been arrested by Sheriff John Hurley for singing too loud and waking up all the planetary inhabitants; that Sharon Sexton, Betty Reynolds, Nita Trulock, Martha Irons, and Helen Hall were kept busy in the drive-in run by Mel Tilton.

We arrived home thoroughly thrilled at having a trip such as this and seeing our friends once again, but a sudden thought came to mind that we were the only ones from the Class of '52 who still lived on "Terra Firma."

The only way the many memories of our high school days can be preserved is through our yearbook. It has always been the custom at V. H. S. for the senior class to publish the Valenian.

The actual work of planning the book, taking the pictures, and writing the articles is carried on by a group of seniors along with their junior assistants on the staff. They will never forget the sticky paste-ups of the pictures, their careful thought in composing the write-ups, and the last-minute rush to meet the dead-line.

The senior class as a whole takes part in putting out the book by selling candy and ice cream in school during the noon hour, after school, and at the basketball games.
